

Industrial Nurses to Form Harbor Chapter

Plans to organize the 93rd constituency of the American Association of Industrial Nurses received a shot in the arm last week from Douglas Aircraft Co. in Long Beach.

G. E. Himmelbauer, manager of administrative operations for the firm, was the featured speaker at the first "Nurses - Medical - Management" annual banquet.

"Perspective" was the theme for the banquet. Among the speakers were Clarence C. Lloyd, M.D., corporate medical director for North American Aviation, Inc., and Dorothy Nilsen, R. N., Union Oil Co. and president of the Orange County Association of Industrial Nurses. More than 150 persons attended the banquet.

The next regular membership meeting of the association will be held Tuesday at Douglas Aircraft Co., 3855 Lakewood Blvd., Long Beach. The meeting, which begins at 7:30 p.m., will feature Dr. Harold LeBlond.

All industrial nurses in the harbor area are invited to attend the meeting.

Idell M. Landrum, R.N., of Gaffers and Sattler Co., is the membership chairman of the organization. She may be reached at 232-4711, ext. 255.

Elnora Ashby of the Torrance facility of Douglas Aircraft Co., is the first vice president of the American Association of Industrial Nurses.

Improvements in Carson Area Set

The Board of Supervisors on motion of Supervisor Burton W. Chace has authorized $4,400 for improvement of streets in the Carson area.

Road Department schedules provide for repair and resurfacing of Sorock Drive east of 232nd Street, 231st Street from Meyler Avenue to Petroleum Avenue and 232nd Street from Sorock Drive to Vermont Avenue.

Meyler Avenue near 225th Street also is included in the road schedule.

NURSES HELPED . . . Dorothea Nilsen, R.N., and G. E. Himmelbauer, manager of administrative operations for Douglas Aircraft Co. in Long Beach, discuss plans to organize a chapter of the American Association of Industrial Nurses in the area. More than 150 persons attended a meeting on the organization last week.

COUNT MARCO SAYS

Are You Driving Him to Drink?

Did you know that one of the major causes of divorce is alcoholism?

The situation is very much like the old one of the chicken or the egg, because today's problem is: "Does the wife drive the husband to drink or does the husband's drinking drive the wife to divorce, or both?"

I shall tell you the answer to both. The chicken came first because something had to lay the egg.

It doesn't take too much imagination to discover that it is also the poorer type of wife who lays an egg by driving the husband to drink.

Here are just a few of the many reasons why husbands are driven to drink by their wives.

He hits the bottle because you constantly nag and pick.

It's a habit with you, and you find all kinds of things to throw in his face, which a good wife would never even think about.

He is driven to drink about the first of every month when the bills come 'round and he sees that you're driving him into financial disaster.

He drinks when he sits down to the dinner table and sees what you've thrown together and pass off as food.

He reaches for the bottle when he arrives at home and sees the ghost of his former love in hair rollers, shorts, or ungirdled fat pushing frantically at the seams of jeans.

The bottle becomes his companion if you do not permit him to bring his friends home for a friendly evening of cards or sports talking, no matter how obnoxious you think they are.

He buys his drinks at the local bar if you complain that he is late coming home. He knows he'll "catch it," so he belts down a few to bolster his courage and shut off the source of static he is forced to listen to.

He takes to drinking if the house is filled with noisy little monsters who have destroyed not only the furnishings but the peace and quiet every man should have after a hard day's work and a freeway fight.

He sneaks a few in the garage if upon immediate entrance into the house the food is on the table and he isn't given a chance to unwind with a cocktail served graciously by you.

He needs a drink if, when he does arrive at the house, you have a list of things he "forgot" to do—appliances that don't work, the lawn that needs mowing, the children who have to be either picked up or delivered somewhere — and the kitchen sink filled with dirty dishes.

Now, can you think of any more reasons why a husband is driven to drink by the wife, who is then driven to divorce? I can. But I would like to hear more of yours.
